

WEDNESDAY - Updated
Morning English	Reading: Read the next chapter of your novel then: Connections Find a news article that represents similar topics or events to the novel you are reading.
	Spelling: Segment your spelling words in your workbook.
	Writing: Dialogue Create a dialogue between your two characters. Do not forget to add the Speech marks (quotation marks) whenever a character is speaking. E.g. " Hey Rob, did you see Jack fall over in class?" To get you started, here is a video explaining dialogue: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vZ4BbyBUSmA
	Recess
Middle Maths	Number of the Day: See Monday.
	Multiplication: Year 3: Multiplication facts- 2 times table (pages 8-9) Year 4: Using known Facts- Factors and Multiples (pages 11-12) Additional Activities - Year 3 and 4: Complete 2 Mathematics task
	Lunch
Afternoon Other KLA's	History: You've already written a diary entry pretending to be a convict on the First Fleet. Now write a diary entry about your thoughts upon arriving in Australia. Remember only Indigenous/Aboriginal people lived here and they lived off the flora and fauna. There were no prison walls and convicts were put to work straight away to help the new British colony. Life for a convict was hard!